Business Meeting
101 East Capitol Avenue, Suite 204
Little Rock, Arkansas

July 17, 2019

The regularly scheduled meeting of the Arkansas Motor Vehicle Commission was called to order at 9:30 a.m. via Conference Call by Chairman Joy Blankenship. Staff on the call included Sandy Stroope, Tanelle Hymes, Crystal Campbell, and John Carmack. All the Commissioners were on the call except for Ken Yarbrough. Also on the call was Julie Chavis with the Attorney General's Office and Courtney Sheppard with Government Solutions.

The minutes from the June 19, 2019, meeting were unanimously approved following a proper motion and second.

The Commission approved the meeting expenses for the current meeting following a proper motion and second.

Julie Chavis with the Attorney General's Office gave the update to the Commission on current Ad Hoc findings/actions to dismiss C#19-015, Crain Automotive Holdings, LLC vs. Ford Motor Company, due to the AR Motor Vehicle Commission not having jurisdiction. The Commission gave a proper motion and second to dismiss complaint. Julie also presented to the Commission to schedule a hearing for the next Commission meeting in reference to C#19-007, Crain Family Holdings, LLC vs. Ford Motor Company. The Commission gave a proper motion and second to set hearing date for August 21, 2019 at 9:30am, next Commission meeting date and time.

Director Sandy Stroope gave an update on the Transformation of the agency. He stated that he and Joy had met with the new Secretary over the Licensing & Labor Boards and that he would keep everyone involved and in –the- know of any changes. He then presented the update on the Lottery style promotion pieces. A letter from the Attorney General's office will be sent via mail and email to all the dealers across Arkansas. Investigators Crystal Campbell and John Carmack have been tasked with issuing them by hand as they visit with General managers and sales managers at the dealerships.

Chairman Blankenship accepted a proper motion and a second to adjourn the meeting.
